London, Oct. 1 (12:30 p.m.)—The General Mevel, Karpatski, has been appointed chief of the Bosnian grenadier corps, 1st, 2d, 3d & 4th, according to a telegraph from Berlin.

Amsterdam, Oct. 1 (via London, 8:32 a.m.)—Czernica is engaged in Greece, the Telegraph says, and according to the home office telegrams have been reported.

Amsterdam, Sept. 30 (via London, Oct. 1, 1:06 a.m.)—The correspondent of the Cologne Gazette in Champagne sends the following to his newspaper:

"It is continually becoming clearer that the enemy's surprise attack carried out by a tremendous array of forces, which had been in preparation for several months, will not succeed. The attack now has been brought to a standstill all along the line and the prospects of a further setback are being awaited with equianimity. The spirits of the men are excellent and their movements are being executed calmly and confidently."

FRANCE REPORTS FURTHER
CRUSHING BLOWS DELIVERED

Paris, Oct. 1 (12:30 p.m.)—In the great battle in the Artois district the French made further progress, means of hand grenades, on German trenches. Attainment to this effect was made today by the war office.

In the Champagne a German community near Malicet de Plaine was checked.

The Germans violently ambushed French troops near small mouth of the Aisne, but had to withdraw it.

The rest of the communication lines to the Artois district were made progress in the use of hand grenades in the trenches but under constant pressure to the rear and to the south of Soissons.

GERMAN OFFICIAL STATEMENT
SAVS ATTACK IS SILENT

London, Oct. 1 (via Berlin, 12:30 p.m.)—The British have said their attacks and the Germans made further progress north of Lille. The war office announced to-day that French attacks east of Soissons and west of Reims had been checked.

The British counter-attack has been stopped, one reason a force was concentrated especially in the west of the Aisne. The other reason is trench to the south of Hill No.
100, where French troops had attacked themselves because of the troops were completely repulsed.

To the north of the Aisne, however, the French conducted a valuable demonstration against our trench-

The following statement was received from the British war
office:

"The war office has announced today that during September 1, results appeared on the French front of about 30,000 men, 27,000 of whom were killed.

The following statement was re-
office:

"The British did not attempt to make a fresh attack yesterday but nevertheless lost 1,000 men in other places. A few prisoners were made and the British army without result."

Today's War Summary

Pressing of the general offensive movement by the entente allies on the western front has resumed in further progress, for them in the Artois region in northern France. Successes in this sector, where the fight for the important town of Lens with its radiating railways is being waged, were won by means of hand grenade attacks, according to today's statement by the Paris war office.

In the Champagne district, where the French have made no tangible advances since last Saturday, when the great forward movement began, German communities were checked near Maisons de Champagne, the official statement from the French war office announces.

Violent bombardment of French trenches north of the Aisne, near Soissons, is reported, the Germans, however, making no tangible attack.

On the eastern front the Tentative progress is slower in most sectors and has been checked altogether in others, according to the latest reports from Petrograd.
Field Marshal von Hindenburg's force has made little headway against Dvinsk. In Volhynia the Germans are fighting hard, but so far unsuccessfully, to regain possession of the fortress of Lutsk.

Reports have been received in Italy that the Bulgarians are expecting all along the Serbian front-line, protecting the entrenched positions with barbed wire entanglements, and that clashes between Bulgarians and Serbians on the border already have occurred.
